

Dr Nicole Brown

Social Research & Practice and Education Ltd.

Dear Nicole,

Here is an update for the Practice As Research network:

Although everything is still being developed, do check out the developments of/for the network: Web page, YouTube channel, and Podcast, which is also accessible on other RSS podcast apps. In the future, I am hoping to add more information, resources and interviews on these spaces. If there is anything you would like to share, please, do get in touch.

In our inaugural Practice As Research seminar on the 6th October Dr Marquard Smith and Dr Bruno de Paula presented their exploration of reflexivity in their work. The video and audio recordings along with the slides are available at: Reflexivity within Practice As Research.

In our next seminar on the 3 November Aine McAllister will present on poetic inquiry. For more info, check out Voice, Authority and Truth.

To attend the seminar and subsequent discussion please, use the following Zoom link:

Future seminars:

1 December 2021: Taming your inner artist: challenges of creative practice-based research with Dr Agata Lulkowska

5 January 2022: Positionality in PAR research with Dr Sara Young

The Poetry As Research is by now well-established with regular contributions from colleagues mainly from the US and the UK. In addition to sharing work and discussing the different processes of poetic inquiry, the collective is currently also preparing for its first submission to a conference in South Africa. If you would like to find out about the Poetry As Research group, please email Aine McAllister and Nicole Brown.

As always, I am looking forward to connecting with you.
