

Dr Nicole Brown

Social Research & Practice and Education Ltd.

Dear Nicole,

It is with great pleasure that I send you this latest bi-weekly update.

All the information shared here can also be retrieved from the Practice As Research web site, just bookmark the link. If you missed our latest seminar earlier this month, check out Voice, Authority and Truth, where you will find the recording of Aine McAllister's presentation in video and audio format.

Poetry As Research group:

We will have two more evening sessions this term before we move to afternoon times for the spring term. If you would like to find out about more, please email Aine McAllister and Nicole Brown.

Practice As Research: Making the Case for PAR in Social Sciences

Please, get in touch if you would like to be involved in interactive debates and networking opportunities as part of the European Congress of Qualitative Inquiry.

Podcast interviews:

My latest plan for connecting with you and for opening up the conversation around Practice As Research is to start organising podcast interviews to be shared on the web site. If you're happy to be interviewed, please, do get in touch.

Seminar series:

In our next seminar we will hear from Dr Agata Lulkowska exploring challenges of creative practice-based research in her talk Taming Your Inner Artist.

The seminar will be held on the 1st December from 2 to 3 pm UK time. To attend the seminar and subsequent discussion please, use the following Zoom link:

Join seminar on 1 Dec

Future seminars:

5 January 2022: Positionality in PAR research with Dr Sara Young

2 February 2022: Jan Blommaert's powerful voice with Dr Jenny Van der Aa

As always, I am looking forward to connecting with you.

Nicole
