

Dr Nicole Brown

Social Research & Practice and Education Ltd.

Dear Nicole,

This time I start the newsletter with an apology for having neglected the network.

Unfortunately, strikes at the UK Higher Education Institutions, the continued Covid19 pandemic and a way too busy start to 2022 have taken their toll. But hopefully, after next week we'll be back to normal business. This month's meeting scheduled for tomorrow 2nd March has unfortunately been cancelled, but the session on the 6th of April will be back on.

Maybe this is a sign that I should ask more formally for support on the network: if you are interested and able/willing to co-host or co-organise or you have ideas for how to grow the network, please email Nicole Brown.

Poetry As Research: Exciting news!

The poetry group collective has asked to contribute to an edited book based on our contribution to the 8th International Symposium on Poetic Inquiry 2022 in Cape Town, South Africa.

Invitation to IOE, UCL's Faculty of Education and Society

You are warmly invited to attend the next doctoral research seminar in Art, Design and Museology on Thursday 3rd March between 5 and 7pm. There will be two presentations, both by art teachers whose research is practice-based. James Stevenson has recently successfully upgraded and will present in relation to his exhibition, currently on display in the Monitor Gallery, and Dr Alan Cusack will present from his recently completed PhD research. For more information, please email Annie Davey.

Future seminars:

6 April 2022: Presentation by Dr Brigitta Zics

4 May 2022: Presentation by Dr Monica Sassatelli

Poetry As Research group:

If you would like to receive more information and/or join the group, please email Aine McAllister and Nicole Brown.

Podcast interviews:

Please, do get in touch to get involved.

As always, I am looking forward to connecting with you.

Nicole
