

Dr Nicole Brown

Social Research & Practice and Education Ltd.

Dear Nicole,

Now that spring has sprung in the Southeast of England, life feels sunnier, and I hope you this is true for you, too.

Thank you to those colleagues, who have been in touch about the many projects that we have in the works. It will be great to strengthen the network in all the proposed ways. Please, email Nicole Brown to share your Practice As Research work, so we can make it available on the website for everyone to read.

The latest post on the website list the Poetry As Research readings that have been discussed in meetings, as well as Nicole's and Áine's contribution to the the SAGE MethodSpace. We were asked to outline the principles of Practice As Research and introduce our Poetry As Research group.

On 4 May 2022 at 2pm British Summer Time Dr Monica Sassatelli, Associate Professor at the University of Bologna, Italy, will be presenting her talk Drawing Research, in which she will focus on affordances of narrative drawing in the context of research and when researching participants' experiences. Please, have some pens and paper ready, as we will also be drawing and doodling.
