Dear Nicole,

I hope this newsletter finds you well. Over the past few weeks I have had the great fortune to have been contacted by several colleagues and members of the PAR network on moving our vision forward and strengthening our collaborations. If you would like to get involved in some way, please, do not hesitate to email Nicole Brown.

I would like to highlight a new contribution to our PAR website by PAR network member Federica Manfredi who talks about the project "The Pursuit of Excellence: The Hacked Barbie".

This week, also, sees the first contribution coming out of the Poetry As Research group. We will, of course, share what we can from the conference presentation. If you would like to receive more information and/or join the group, please email Áine McAllister and Nicole Brown.

Next seminar:

On 1 June 2022 at 2pm British Summer Time Prof Jenny Pickerill, Professor of Environmental Geography at Sheffield University, UK, will be presenting her talk Participatory activist research: Reflexivity, transparency and accountability.

Join seminar on 1 June at 2pm

Future seminars:

6 July 2022: "Architecture of slowness" by Matthew Butcher

Academic year 2022/2023:

The first details for the next academic term are available on the PAR website, already. It looks like it's going to be a fascinating, busy year!

Wishing you a very good week ahead, and looking forward to connecting in our next seminar...

Nicole
