Dear Nicole,

As always I am amazed how quickly time flies, and that it is already 2 weeks again since my last message to you. In case you missed it, we recently had another great seminar session, a very successful poetry writing group, we also have some new posts on our website, and - as always - there are plans for further developments.

Check out the website for details on Federica Manfredi's project The Pursuit of Excellence, Metka Potočnik's introduction to the Interdisciplinary Feminist Research Hub, and Nicole Brown's recording of the presentation Research Ethics in a Changing Social Sciences Landscape, and the recording of the seminar Ethical Dilemmas in 20 century British Music Education History presented by Dr Ross Purves.

Our next session will take place on 7 December 2022 at 11 am GMT, where Prof Kate Wall will talk about Ethics and Ethical Considerations in Practitioner Research. Click to register on Eventbrite.

As always if you are interested in finding out more about the plans of the Practice As Research network, if you would like to share your ideas, and/or you would like to get involved in any other way, please, email Nicole Brown, I am always excited to hear from members.

Future seminars:

7 December 2022 at 11am: Prof Kate Wall.

11 January 2023 at 9am: Dr Sonia York-Price.

Recordings from previous seminars:

- Dr Elena Tragou's presentation about the relationship between ethics, research and practice.
- Dr Ana Pellicer-Sánchez' talk about ethics in the context of research into language learning processes and the use of eye-tracking.

If you missed a previous session, please, check out the PAR YouTube channel or the PAR Buzzsprout channel for the recordings.

Wishing you a very good week ahead, and looking forward to connecting soon...

Nicole
