

Dr Nicole Brown

Social Research & Practice and Education Ltd.

Dear Nicole,

It is so very cold everywhere at the moment. But as we are headed towards spring, I am hopeful with the renewed energy of longer days and more sunshine we'll be able to tackle new developments within the Practice As Research network.

Having spoken to several network members, I wonder if there is sufficient interest for an edited book (actually two!). The first one would be focussing on "What is Practice As Research?" and the second one would be "Dealing with ethics in Practice As Research". If you are interested, please email Nicole Brown.

Last week saw our most popular seminar, and I created an interactive map to show where everyone was hailing from. View that Practice As Research network map and add your own marker! Also, I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to those attendees who kindly left money in the virtual tip jar to support the upkeep of the network podcast and website.

The Social Fiction Writing group will meet again on the 29 March at 2pm UK time. If you're interested to find out more and/or to join, please email Nicole Brown. If you're interested to find out more about the Poetry As Research group and/or to join, please email Áine McAllister.

Remember to consider submitting work you may have to the "Please Do Touch" exhibition for the Social Research Association's annual conference in June. Find out more from the SRA website.

Our next seminar will be on the 26 April 2023 at 2pm UK time with Dr Estelle Evrard from the University of Luxembourg. Please, note that on that day we will work with UK Daylight Savings Time (summer time).

Future seminars:

3 May 2023 at 2pm: Dr Alison Fox.

17 May 2023 at 2pm: Prof John Potter and Dr Michelle Cannon.

7 June 2023 at 2pm: Dr Kay Sidebottom.

21 June 2023 at 12 noon: Prof Jenny Parkes.

Recent recordings:

- Prof Sarah Banks' presentation about ethics in participatory research.

As always if you are interested in finding out more about the plans of the Practice As Research network, if you would like to share your ideas, and/or you would like to get involved in any other way, please, email Nicole Brown, I am always excited to hear from members.

If you missed a previous session, please, check out the PAR YouTube channel or the PAR Buzzsprout channel for the recordings.

The Practice As Research network with its resources is free and always will be, but it does of course incur costs to run and to keep it running. If you use it and benefit, enjoy it and would like to keep it going, please, consider leaving something in the tip jar. Thank you!

Wishing you a very good week ahead, until the next time...

Nicole
