

Dr Nicole Brown

Social Research & Practice and Education Ltd.

Dear Nicole,

It has been a busy few weeks again, and I cannot believe that we are nearing the end of the first term already. And what a term it has been!

Last week Dr Beth Curtis presented "Teacher-researcher-playwright: Navigating practice as research", and on the 4th December at 2pm UK time Bernice Shanicky will deliver her talk "Sticky, Sick, Stuck: Researching equity in the Canadian public arts".

Please register on the relevant pages to avoid disappointment, and check back on the PAR events page for up-to-date info on further dates and details.

Progress has been made regarding the edited book on Ethics in Practice As Research with the three editors finalising the details to submit a proposal to UCL Press before the end of this term. And Dr Sara Young is currently confirming keynote speakers for the conference on ethics to be held on the 11th of June 2024. Save the date!

If you have any ideas for speakers and/or sessions or publications, please, email Nicole Brown. I am always excited to hear from network members.

Future seminars:

4 December at 2 pm UK time: Shanice Bernicky - Research creation

9 January at 2 pm UK time: Lucy Harding - Entanglements

Recent recordings:

- Dr Beth Curtis's presentation Teacher-researcher-playwright: Navigating practice as research
- The panel discussion "How do we do Practice as Research" with Dr Theo Bryer, Annie Davey, and Dr Chris Rhodes.

The Practice As Research network with its resources is free and always will be, but it does of course incur costs to run and to keep it running. If you use it and benefit, enjoy it and would like to keep it going, please, consider leaving something in the tip jar.

Thank you!

Nicole
