

Dr Nicole Brown

Social Research & Practice and Education Ltd.

Dear Nicole,

I would like to begin this newsletter by expressing my heart-felt gratitude to those of you who have kindly left some donations in the tip jar. You and I know who you are.

With a cold snap having broken into the UK and many parts of Europe, it feels particularly special to not have to go out for research seminars and networking events. And today, we have a special treat:

At 2pm UK time Bernice Shanicky from Carlton University, Canada will deliver her talk "Sticky, Sick, Stuck: Researching equity in the Canadian public arts". Please register to avoid disappointment.

For anyone interested in the Social Fiction Writing group, please, email Nicole Brown. The meeting dates for the spring and summer terms have been set, and our first session will be on the 10 January 2024 from 12.30 to 2.00 UK time.

If you have any ideas for speakers and/or sessions or publications, please, email Nicole Brown. I am always excited to hear from network members.

Future seminars:

9 January at 2 pm UK time: Lucy Harding - Entanglements

Recent recordings:

- Dr Beth Curtis's presentation Teacher-researcher-playwright: Navigating practice as research"
- The panel discussion "How do we do Practice as Research" with Dr Theo Bryer, Annie Davey, and Dr Chris Rhodes.

The Practice As Research network with its resources is free and always will be, but it does of course incur costs to run and to keep it running. If you use it and benefit, enjoy it and would like to keep it going, please, consider leaving something in the tip jar.

Thank you!

Nicole
