

Dr Nicole Brown

Social Research & Practice and Education Ltd.

Dear Nicole,

We are nearing the end of this winter term in the UK, and with that I'm sure we all look forward to having some time away from computer screens. But please, email Nicole Brown to share your PAR work and have your research featured on the website or in a seminar. I am always excited to hear from network members.

The Practice As Research network will return as strong as ever in the New Year:

- On the 9 January 2024 at 2pm UK time Lucy Harding discusses her material, creative, activist research of prison education spaces in her Entanglements presentation. Register to avoid disappointment.
- The first Social Fiction Writing meeting will take place on the 10 January 2024 from 12.30 to 2.00 UK time. For more information and/or to receive the meeting links please, email Nicole Brown.

It is also a great pleasure for me to share information about two permanent academic positions in Aotearoa New Zealand which may be of interest:

Two experienced and collaborative colleagues are sought to join the programme in Human Geography and Development Studies in Te Kura Tātai Aro Whenua School of Geography, Environment and Earth Sciences, Te Herenga Waka Victoria University of Wellington, Te Whanganui-a-Tara Wellington, Aotearoa New Zealand as Lecturer or Associate Professor/Professor.

Development Studies and Geography at Te Herenga Waka are well-regarded programmes internationally, and we are known for our collegiality, criticality and socially-engaged orientation to teaching and research. Applications close on January 15, 2024.

The colleagues at Te Herenga Waka look forward to receiving your application!

Future seminars:

9 January at 2 pm UK time: Lucy Harding - Entanglements

Recent recordings:

- Bernice Shanicky's presentation Sticky, Sick, Stuck: Researching equity in the Canadian public arts
- Dr Beth Curtis's presentation Teacher-researcher-playwright: Navigating practice as research"

- The panel discussion "How do we do Practice as Research" with Dr Theo Bryer, Annie Davey, and Dr Chris Rhodes.

The Practice As Research network with its resources is free and always will be, but it does of course incur costs to run and to keep it running. If you use it and benefit, enjoy it and would like to keep it going, please, consider leaving something in the tip jar. Thank you!

Nicole
